GOOD SPORTSMAN

Consider his athletic opponents as his guest.
Never attempts to antagonize them.
Always cheers the opposing team
as it appears on the track and field.
Applauds an opponent who makes a good play.
Gives the opposing group fair opportunity for their yell.
Remains until the games are over.
Remembers that the reputation of the team
depends upon his conduct during the game and after it.
Seeks to win by fair and lawful means,
according to the rules of the game.
Endeavors to make his team known for its good sportsmanship.
Loves the game for its own sake
and not for what winning may bring him.
