SALUDO

In sports, “SALUDO” holds significant value, especially in Filipino culture. Let’s delve into its importance:

- Values Formation: Athletic competition in the Philippines, emphasizes the values inherent in sports. These include discipline, teamwork, excellence, fair play, solidarity, and sportsmanship. Through sports, young athletes learn not only about winning but also about handling defeats and obstacles with grace and resilience.

- Positive Attitude. View your sport as an opportunity to compete against yourself and learn from both successes and failures.
- Own your sports involvement. Take control of every aspect that impacts your performance—whether physical, technical, tactical, equipment, or mental.
